

CONSERVATIVES

with Attitude!

New Jersey's Top Conservative Political Blog

Jay Webber NEW NJ GOP Chairman?

by: Michael Illions | 11 June 2009

{Update: Show your support for Jay Webber by announcing a pledge amount in the comments section that you will donate the day that Jay is elected NJ GOP Chairman. Conservatives have been asking and hoping for this change and this chance for years and years at the State level. We can't say thank you with words, we need to show we will support the new Chairman with our time, energy and our wallet.}

Hat tip to Jeff B. who sent me the article posted by PolitickerNJ.com:

Gubernatorial candidate Christopher Christie is expected to pick Jay Webber, a freshman Republican Assemblyman from Morris County, as the new GOP State Chairman. Webber, a strong conservative, would replace Tom Wilson as head of the state party organization.

Webber's selection, which must be ratified by a vote of the Republican State Committee, will likely please conservatives who made up most of Steven Lonegan's 42% in Tuesday's primary election.

This is great news, and congratulations to Jay Webber and thank you to Chris Christie. You could not ask for anyone more Conservative then Jay Webber, other then perhaps Michael Doherty or Michael Patrick Carroll, although Webber will probably be a better fundraiser, which the party desperately needs right now.

Jay has been a long time friend of Conservatives with Attitude! and I personally want to congratulate him and say how great this is for the Conservative movement in New Jersey.